Commission announces its decision on appeals against the decision of the Grey District Council to abolish the Northern Ward Community Board

The Local Government Commission today issued its decision on appeals against the decision of the Grey District Council to abolish the Northern Ward Community Board.

Having considered the Council's proposal against the statutory criteria contained in part 1A of the Local Electoral Act 2001, the Commission has decided to uphold the decision to abolish the Community Board.

The Northern Ward Community Board will continue in existence until the next local elections, to be held on 13 October 2007.

A copy of the Commission's determination is available on the Commission's website at <http://www.lgc.govt.nz>
